

Honouring Bravery: A Canada Company Military History Learning Program

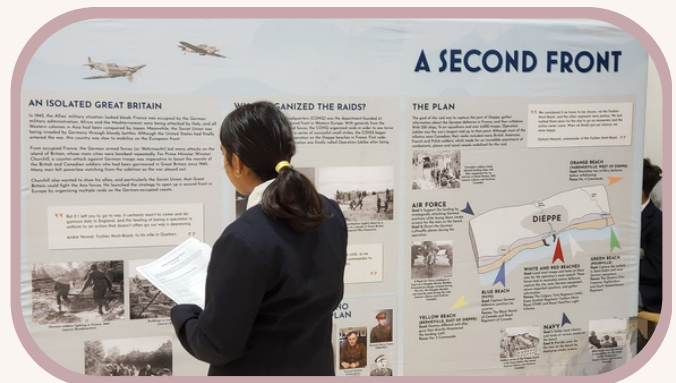

Honouring Bravery aims to bring engaging content about Canada's military history to classrooms across the country

Free culturally relevant and responsive learning materials that are curriculum-based and easy to integrate into lesson plans.

Built around fact-based storytelling, focusing on authentic stories of diverse military heroes from across Canada.

Materials we offer:

- Free travelling exhibits for your schools
- Interactive virtual exhibitions
- Turnkey lesson plans
- Blog articles and interactive games
- Remembrance Day resources for all ages

Reserve a travelling exhibition

Example of a virtual exhibition

Year-long online opportunities to learn about Canadian history

We offer units on a number of topics. Each unit includes in-depth interactive virtual exhibitions and curriculum-aligned lesson plans.

- Nursing Sisters of WWI
- Normandy Landings
- Mobilizing a Country: Canada and WWI
- Canadians in Afghanistan

Remembrance Day Resources for K-12

We offer learning modules for grades K-12 that help young learners understand the importance of Remembrance Day.

- Respect + Responsibility (Grades K - 2)
- Remembrance + Bravery (Grades 3-5)
- Service + Sacrifice (Grades 6-8)
- Trailblazers + Changemakers (Grades 9-12)

